

“Me and my team here have been working with ISM since 2017.

Paula joined the team in 2018 and instantly set out a high standard of professionalism and really understood the need of our business.

Having the right staff is key to any business's success even more so when these staff members are the face of our company and interact with our customers on a daily basis.

Paula is a forward thinker, a great planner and an excellent communicator. Our relationship with Paula is fantastic and we look forward to working together with Paula and ISM for many more years to come.”

"Over the past year working with Jennifer, we have found her very efficient in dealing with emergency requirements of Agency staff. Thankfully this does not happen too often as Jennifer is in continuous contact with both myself and Harry as to our requirements going forward. Jennifer's communication is key for us in running our distribution smoothly and professionally in a constantly changing business. Quality staff is very hard to come by but somehow Jennifer seems to know exactly what we need and who would be a good fit to our requirements. This is testament to us taking on a couple of the lads recently to our CBL employee portfolio.

I think both Harry and myself would agree that we could not fault customer service levels from ISM and long may our partnership continue".

“I have had the pleasure of working closely with Irish School of Motoring for 10 years (or more!), ISM have worked very hard for us over the years, finding us temporary (and permanent) placements in all departments: Admin, Engineering, Production, Transport and Warehouse.

ISM have also provided us with their excellent training services, support for our charity partners and supporting corporate events. Irish School of Motoring have been a true business partner over the years, and I look forward to continuing to work with them as we grow our business, with a little help from our friends in ISM.

Jordan Maher is our main point of contact, and he puts all effort in to finding us the right candidates, in particular HGV drivers. Jordan is always available on the phone, friendly and professional and is always quick to react to short notice requests for temporary placements.

The team in ISM are great to work with and always strive to answer all our placement needs.

Thank you, Jordan Maher, Paula Lanigan, Lydia Nkuba, Jennifer Byrne, Eoghan Kennedy and Mike Fitzpatrick – the dream team.”

“We have been working with I.S.M. for many years, where they have provided us with general operatives for our busy warehouse, and also cover-drivers for our fleet of trucks and vans. I.S.M. have been an integral partner in keeping us supplied with short-term placements, allowing us to continue our daily operations to the high standard we set for ourselves.

Working with Sara, Shauna, Darren and Lee and team in I.S.M., we find them to be professional, and sensitive to our particular needs.

We have also availed of their first-class training and refresher programmes, allowing us to keep staff fully trained and proficient in up to date best practices within the industry.

Flexible and understanding in their approach, and willing to get us out of a jam, sometimes at short notice, I would highly recommend the I.S.M. team”
